I. PROPOSED MOBILITY PROGRAMME

Language of training: English

Type of this staff training (choose one):
<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Job Shadowing	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Workshop
<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Training	<input type="checkbox"/> Other
Overall objectives of the mobility:
The main purpose of the visit is to improve skills and exchange experience in the field of tribological research and teaching technical disciplines. At present, the science of tribology is rapidly developing and covers all new areas of practical application. The host university has accumulated best practices in using the achievements of "green tribology" to solve important environmental problems associated with the use of technology. Considering also the high level of theoretical research in tribology at Khmelnytsky National University, useful scientific cooperation is planned to obtain new results in the theory and practice of tribological research, the use of scientific results in the educational process.
Training activity to develop pedagogical and/or curriculum design skills:
<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Yes	<input type="checkbox"/> No
Added value of the mobility (in the context of the modernisation and internationalisation strategies of the institutions involved):
The key added value for mobility is as follows: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - methodological materials for teachers of the host university were prepared; - teachers and young scientists of the host university will get acquainted with the methodology for creating and implementing computational and experimental methods for predicting the resource of friction units of machines; - faculty and staff of the host university will benefit from familiarity with the education system of Ukraine and Khmelnytsky National University, having the opportunity to exchange experiences in learning management; - exchange of ideas about future cooperation in the field of education and research will improve academic relations between departments and lay the foundation for future cooperation.
Activities to be carried out:
Day 1. (18.07.2022). Analysis of scientific directions and results of the work of tribological laboratories of the university Day 2. (19.07.2022). Seminar: "Tribological trends and achievements at Khmelnytsky National University" Day 3. (20.07.2022). Study of methods of laboratory testing of tribological properties of structural and lubricant materials Day 4. (21.07.2022). Lecture: "Statement and solution of wear-contact tasks for typical tribotechnical systems" Day 5. (22.07.2022). Lecture: "Theoretical basis of laboratory tests for wear". Carrying out test laboratory tests.
Expected outcomes and impact (e.g. on the professional development of the staff member and on both institutions):
The visit and stay at the Agricultural Academy of Vytautas Magnus University will serve as a positive continuation of the long-term cooperation between the departments of the host and domestic universities and, thus, the study of mutual needs will be additional tasks. and opportunities to plan for better future faculty participation and collaboration in both academic and research areas. Young scientists and researchers will gain understanding and knowledge about methods for predicting the durability of friction units by the wear criterion, the role of tribological tests in creating methods for calculating wear. Mobility will initiate cooperation and join projects in the field of tribology.

II. COMMITMENT OF THE THREE PARTIES

By signing⁶ this document, the staff member, the sending institution and the receiving institution/enterprise confirm that they approve the proposed mobility agreement.

The sending higher education institution supports the staff mobility as part of its modernisation and internationalisation strategy and will recognise it as a component in any evaluation or assessment of the staff member.

The staff member will share his/her experience, in particular its impact on his/her professional development and on the sending higher education institution, as a source of inspiration to others.

The staff member and the beneficiary institution commit to the requirements set out in the grant agreement signed between them.

The staff member and the receiving institution/enterprise will communicate to the sending institution any problems or changes regarding the proposed mobility programme or mobility period.
